When using PURE

We recommend carrying as little baggage as possible when you come.

High heels or sandals without a heel band are not allowed for some activities.

Please remove any accessories you are wearing. We are not responsible for any loss.

Outdoor attractions may get wet due to conditions such as morning dew, rain, and the nature of the experience.

This facility is only available to those who agree to the following precautions

- If you do not follow the rules, there is a risk of serious accidents. Please follow the staff's instructions at all times. Please note that we may immediately stop your use of the facility if staff determine it to be unsafe or disruptive to others. In such cases, we are unable to provide a refund. We may also deny usage to those who request absolute safety.
- As these are nature-based activities, there may be risks or unforeseen circumstances. While we prioritise safety, equipment does not guarantee absolute protection. Please take personal responsibility for your own safety at Pure.
- If you cause damage to another person, property, facilities, or equipment, we will seek compensation.
- We are not responsible for any damage, loss, or contamination of personal belongings at Pure. Please manage your valuables yourself.
- Pure is not available to people with health conditions or disabilities that may be affected by using the facilities. We are not responsible for any issues that arise from these conditions.

Please confirm if any of the following apply to you:

- Having a physical disability
